Northern Savings Celebrates International Credit Union Day with Community Donations

On October 15, 2020, Northern Savings, along with credit unions world-wide, will celebrate International Credit Union (ICU) Day, a day that recognizes the credit union co-operative movement.

In honour of its 80th anniversary, and in support of its vision of neighbours helping neighbours to build sustainable communities, Northern Savings will be contributing $6,000 to local food banks in Prince Rupert and Terrace and on Haida Gwaii on Credit Union Day.

Typically, Northern Savings' team and its members celebrate the credit union difference through a variety of events. Unfortunately, due to the COVID pandemic, in-person member appreciation events will not be taking place this year.

"2020 has been a challenging year for many of us; nonetheless, there remains a lot to be celebrated – camaraderie, kindness and compassion," said Bob Marshall, CEO, Northern Savings. "Community has never been so vital and Northern Savings is proud to have been part of its Northern communities for 80 years."

"I extend my sincere gratitude to our members for continuing to support local people, businesses and programs in our own communities by choosing to do business with us," noted Marshall.
