Northern Savings Welcomes Michelle Boomars-MacNeill to the Prince Rupert Team

Northern Savings is pleased to announce that Michelle Boomars-MacNeill is joining our Prince Rupert team in the role of Branch Manager.

Michelle's extensive background in financial services includes: personal and small business lending, personal account management, investing, and branch management.

In addition to her tenure in the financial services industry, Michelle is passionate about the community and understands the Credit Union value proposition – having previously worked at both Valley First Credit Union and Northern Savings Credit Union. She currently serves as the President of the Prince Rupert & District Chamber of Commerce and is a board member for the North Coast Ecological Society.

"We received interest from individuals residing across Canada for this position; we are pleased to have an exceptionally qualified local candidate," said Northern Savings President and CEO, Bob Marshall. "We are thrilled to have Michelle return to Northern Savings to support the organization in providing exemplary service to our members, with a focus on our vision of, neighbours helping neighbours to build sustainable communities, noted Marshall.

Michelle will replace Stefan Delloch as the Prince Rupert Branch Manager, who has recently been appointed VP, Operations at Northern Savings. Members are encouraged to stop by the Prince Rupert location to meet Michelle after her start date of September 25, 2019.

About Northern Savings Credit Union
