Northern Savings Welcomes Vaughan New to the Queen Charlotte Team

Northern Savings is pleased to announce that Vaughan New has joined Northern Savings Credit Union in the role of Queen Charlotte, Assistant Branch Manager.

A previous Northern Savings' employee, Vaughan brings an array of experience, serving members for more than ten years in his capacity as: Member Service Representative, Financial Service Representative, Commercial Credit Assistant, and Personal Loans Officer in the Prince Rupert location.

“Vaughan will take on the role that was previously filled by Mimi Paquette. Mimi's commitment to the Queen Charlotte team and members has been truly appreciated; we wish her all the best in her future endeavours,” noted Fay Booker, Northern Savings' President & CEO.

In regards to the appointment, Booker said, “we are thrilled to have Vaughan return to Northern Savings. Vaughan's experience with Northern Savings will be beneficial in his new management role. Vaughan is familiar with Haida Gwaii and is looking forward to setting down roots and working alongside the Queen Charlotte team and membership.”

Vaughan will arrive in Queen Charlotte on August 23 and will begin his new position immediately. Northern Savings will be hosting a meet and greet in the fall, where members can get to know Vaughan and his team.
