Northern Savings Announces New Chief Financial Officer

Northern Savings Credit Union is pleased to announce the appointment of Todd Hurst as Chief Financial Officer.

Todd has a solid financial background including over 11 years of experience in the Canadian credit union system. Northern Savings will benefit from Todd's diverse educational background which includes: a Bachelor of Environmental Science with a focus on sustainability from the University of Manitoba, a Certificate in Management and Administration (CIM) from the University of Manitoba, as well as a CPA designation.

"Todd has fulfilled various financial roles in the credit union system; notably, Senior Accountant at Entegra Credit Union, Controller at Cambrian Credit Union, and Chief Financial Officer at Healthcare and Municipal Employees' Credit Union," said Northern Savings President & CEO, Stefan Delloch. "Todd also brings extensive experience in relation to our new banking system, and we look forward to leveraging his expertise to help modernize our operation while continuing to maximize our local community impact. Todd and his family are looking forward to relocating to the north coast and joining the Prince Rupert community."

Todd will be leaving his dual roles – as both the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Risk Officer, at Healthcare and Municipal Employees' Credit Union to join the Northern Savings team in June. In the meantime, Bill Nicholls, will continue to fulfil the Interim, CFO role.
